

Glimpses of Brilliance

We know you have done a fantastic job preparing for the reopening of schools so it is important to recognise the brilliance of each other.

When you see a staff member do something brilliant, which can be as simple as a teacher supporting another teacher through a new problem, write it in your star template and make a display out of all your glimpses of brilliance!

