

Terms and conditions

Challenge events

Thank you for choosing to take part in a challenge event for YoungMinds. Because of supporters we can keep fighting for a world where no young person feels alone with their mental health.

The terms and conditions below ensure that you know where you stand as a fundraiser. Please read them carefully and ensure you are happy to accept them. You are deemed to accept the terms and conditions if you go on to take part in a Challenge Event through YoungMinds.

These Terms & Conditions govern your participation in your chosen event ("the Event").

You, as the participant acknowledge that the Event is organised by a third party ("the Organiser") with whom you have a separate agreement and its Terms and Conditions should be read in conjunction with these set out below.

Places given by YoungMinds will henceforth be known "Charity Place". These differ from "own places" when a supporter has sourced themselves and has then chosen to fundraise for YoungMinds.

Charity place specific Terms and Conditions

- As you have been given a place by YoungMinds in The Event you pledge to raise the minimum sponsorship target for YoungMinds for the event in which you are participating. The sponsorship target set and amount raised both do not include Gift Aid.
- You must be registered with YoungMinds and with the Organiser. You acknowledge that failure to respond to communications from YoungMinds' Challenge Team about completing the Events registration process or fundraising for YoungMinds may put your event place at risk.
- You must pay a non-refundable and non-transferable registration fee (and any applicable VAT) to YoungMinds prior to participation in the Event. A guaranteed place in the chosen event is subject to the payment of the registration fee. If the event is cancelled due to events beyond our control the registration fee is not guaranteed to be returned, this is the decision of the Event organisers. You understand that donations are not generally refundable, even if you fail to take part in or withdraw from the event.

- You acknowledge that YoungMinds will share your contact details with the Organiser of the Event, and where necessary, with other third parties involved in the administration of the Event. We will never share your data with any other third parties, unless you agree.
- If you have to withdraw or request to defer your place prior to the event, you must notify YoungMinds immediately by contacting the challenges inbox (challenges@youngminds.org.uk) and before the registration deadline if possible. This means we can re-allocate your place to someone else.

Own place specific Terms and Conditions

- By informing YoungMinds you wish to use your own place to fundraise for YoungMinds you confirm that you have obtained a place directly with the Event Organiser and has completed all necessary registrations.

General challenge event terms and conditions

- You must meet the age requirement for the Event as stated by YoungMinds and/or the Organiser.
- You acknowledge that you will be contacted by email, phone, text and post in relation to the event you have registered for, ensuring YoungMinds can deliver the necessary administrative and event-related communications required to complete your successful participation and fundraising for the event. This may include but not be limited to : (a) Completing your registration for the event with any third-party providers; (b) Training advice and plans ; (c) Access to our YoungMinds event Facebook groups (for those events which have a dedicated Facebook group); (d) Fundraising advice and tips; (e) Information about how money raised by supporters is spent by YoungMinds; and (f) Links to online YoungMinds content relevant to your participation in the event. You can update or change your contact permissions at any time by contacting the fundraising inbox (fundraising@youngminds.org.uk) You can find out more about our privacy policy here (Privacy Policy | YoungMinds)
- You acknowledge that YoungMinds will share your contact details with the Organiser of the Event, and where necessary, with other third parties involved in the administration of the Event. We will never share your data with any other third parties, unless you agree.
- If sponsorship money was given on the condition you complete the Event, and the Event is cancelled, or you do not complete the Event, then you must contact donors and ask if they are still happy for sponsorship monies to go YoungMinds. If they do not wish for their sponsorship money to go to YoungMinds in this circumstance, then the donation must be refunded to the relevant donors. If the sponsorship money was given without any conditions attached, and the event is cancelled, or you do not complete the event, the money should be paid to YoungMinds and there is no obligation to contact or confirm this with donors.

- You give your permission for your written content, photo, video and/or audio to be used in part or whole, in YoungMinds platforms, including but not limited to publications, newspapers, magazines, other print media, social media and marketing, advertising, email and paid social.
- You will fundraise in a way that does not endanger or harm yourself, any supporter or member of the public. You will follow any fundraising guidelines provided by YoungMinds.
- You will respect privacy and not fundraise in a way that could be considered persistent or aggressive towards the public.
- You recognise that when you are fundraising for YoungMinds, your actions will be linked to YoungMinds and our cause. You will not do anything to bring YoungMinds' name into disrepute.
- You acknowledge that YoungMinds is unable to provide insurance for the Event. And that you are responsible for securing appropriate insurance cover if required.
- You will make sure that when fundraising for YoungMinds, the charity's name and registered charity number (1016968) are displayed wherever possible.
- You will endeavour to ensure that all funds raised for YoungMinds are collected and paid to YoungMinds within two months of the Event taking place.
- You are medically and physically fit and understand that you take part in this event at your own risk. YoungMinds won't be held responsible for any injury or illness related to your training or taking part in the Event. YoungMinds are not under any obligation whatsoever to process, analyse or otherwise take any action on any medical information disclosed to it either during or after the registration process for an event.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that any equipment or clothing used is in good condition and suitable for the Event.
- You acknowledge and agree that because the event you are taking part in will be taking place in a public space and because YoungMinds is not responsible for organising the Event, YoungMinds cannot be held liable for any damage caused outside of its direct control.
- You will get approval from YoungMinds before using the "in support of" logo for marketing, external promotion and communications. You will not use YoungMinds' official logo, which you understand can only be used by the charity and logo license-holders.

- You will get approval from YoungMinds before approaching any companies, press or celebrities to any fundraising activity.
- You are welcome to request fundraising buckets and you are required to ensure these are properly sealed before collecting donations.
- You will not collect donations door-to-door or in a public place without getting a collector's licence from my local authority or police. You will follow all charity regulations regarding door-to-door fundraising (Door to door fundraising | Fundraising Regulator)
- You will not collect donations on private property without the owner's permission. This includes shops and pubs.
- You will not hold a raffle, lottery or prize draw unless it is permitted by Local Authority and Gambling Commission regulation. You understand that it's your responsibility to ensure you follow the rules and regulations regarding raffles for fundraising. Lotteries and raffles | Fundraising Regulator
- You will not sell alcohol at any event without having the appropriate licence.
- You will not sell goods or services using YoungMinds' name or logo without first contacting YoungMinds and signing an agreement to do so.
- You will not state that your business (or any other business) will be donating to YoungMinds without first contacting YoungMinds and signing an agreement.
- You acknowledge that YoungMinds cannot take responsibility for any losses or harm made through your activity or liability arising from your activity.
- You will only use YoungMinds-branded fundraising materials that been given to you for the Event. This includes both print and digital materials.
- You will not resell or offer for auction YoungMinds merchandise, you may accept donations toward YoungMinds merchandise.

Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude YoungMinds' liability in respect of death or personal injury sustained as a direct result of:

i. the negligence, breach of statutory duty or fraudulent misrepresentation of YoungMinds, its agents or representatives; or

ii. a deliberate act or omission of YoungMinds, its agents or representatives.

YoungMinds Participants and their friends and family members who attend the event do so entirely at their own risk.

Each YoungMinds participant is responsible for their own actions whilst attending or participating in the Event. YoungMinds accepts no responsibility for the actions of a YoungMinds Participant nor the consequences of such actions.

YoungMinds may vary these Terms and Conditions from time to time and the up-to-date terms shall be available on the website.

These Terms and Conditions, and any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with them, are governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

Any questions regarding any of these Terms and Conditions please contact the Challenge Event Team challenges@youngminds.org.uk.
